

Quality of Life

Creating a Sustainable Future for Northwest Indiana

(219) 981-5629 Fax: (219) 980-6737

Quarterly Meeting
Friday, September 5, 2003
The Center, Purdue University Calumet
Hammond, IN

- | | | |
|-------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7:30 | Coffee and Rolls | |
| 8:00 | Welcome and Review of Agenda | Alan Harre, Ph.D. |
| 8:05 | Organizational Business | |
| 8:15 | The Cultural Context of Ethics in Northwest Indiana | Maruice M. Eisenstein, Ph.D.,
Purdue University Calumet |
| 8:30 | Project Restore Integrity | Joseph VanBokkelen, U.S. Attorney |
| 9:00 | National/International Perspectives on Ethics Codes | Carla Miller, Ethics Officer of Jacksonville, Florida and National Chair, COGEL Municipal Project |
| 9:30 | Government Ethics in Indiana | David Maidenberg, Former Director of Indiana Ethics Commission |
| 9:45 | Reaction Panel | Charlie Brown, State Representative
Michael Griffin, Highland Clerk-Treasurer
Mike Griffin, Duneland School Board
Boni Fine, Post-Tribune
Lloyd Rowe, Ph.D., Indiana University Northwest
Chuck Oberlie, Mayor of Michigan City |
| 10:15 | Facilitated Discussion: Would ethics codes be of value in Northwest Indiana? | Ed Charbonneau, Local Government Academy |
| 10:30 | Close | Alan Harre, Ph.D. |

All meetings of the Quality of Life Council are open to all citizens of Northwest Indiana. Individuals and groups are encouraged to attend.